To whomsoever it may concern:

Mr. Gaurav Bhardwaj is a dynamic person, diligent data scientist, researcher, and colleague of the Ioncure community for a significant period of time. He is punctual, honest, and diligent. He worked with Ioncure from October 2022 till March 2023. He completed his internship with us. During that period, he contributed extensively to microblogging, blogging, and social media outreach for epilepsy, and his work made thousands of people learn about epilepsy and improved lives. He has researched and written a book about epilepsy- Epilepsy in Sikkim. Gaurav has helped Ioncure build important databases for epilepsy projects proving his credentials as a good data scientist.

We are very satisfied with his work and happy to issue him this work experience certificate.
